“Breathe Easy” Air Treatment Solutions

by James Scott, Assistant Manager at Harvey Norman Rothwell

Air Purification - Most commonly air purification is a reactive purchase to a problem. People with allergies, Asthma and even skin sensitivities will most often seek a solution to a pre-existing condition. But why would people without these conditions consider purifying the air they breathe at home?

Air Purifiers do just that, they clean and purify the air in your home that you and your family breathe all day. From pollens to dust, bacteria's and mould/spore build up all the way to the odours left behind by your beloved family pets. Air Purifiers will cleanse the environment that you live in so that you can “breathe easy” knowing that the air in your home is free from any impurities that are left behind after regular cleaning.

Humidifiers –

If you experience dry and sensitive skin a Humidifier is the perfect way to relieve the discomfort of the dry seasons. No more static shocks, humidifiers produce a constant level of humidity to condition the air. Humidifiers can also suppress airborne viruses transmitted by coughing, making your home healthier, happier and more comfortable.

Dehumidifiers -

People in tropical climates know all too well the effects of a high humidity environment.

High moisture levels in the air can make your home environment quite uncomfortable. However the benefits of a Dehumidifier go further than just making you home comfortable, they also provide a range of health benefits making your home less hospitable to allergens such as dust mites,

Diffusers – Using a diffuser is one of the most effective ways to disperse essential oils in your home. Essential oils provide your home with numerous health benefits. Citrus to boost immunity, Peppermint to open airways or relieve headaches and Lavender to boost your mood and help you to relax. Three great examples of how essential oils can change the environment in your home.

STEPS TO SILKY SMOOTH HAIR!

BONE DRY

Hair needs to be completely dry! There should be NO SIZZLING at all! Spray hair with Extinguish heat protect when hair is wet and then dry it off!

SECTION

Super thick sections meant that you are reapplying the iron which is drying and damaging.

Split your hair in the middle at the back and bring it forward. Work in sections from the bottom of your head upwards. It is going to take you longer if you are working at random.

FINISHING PRODUCT

When you are finished you want to lock in your hard work. Queensland is one humid place to live and it works against your hair! Use an anti-humidity treatment that also helps if you are prone to go frizzy.

PROTECT

Avoid oils or silicones in your heat spray. Once hair is completely dry you should use an aerosol heat protect that isn't going to dampen hair.

PROTECT ME by Hot Sexy Hair is my fave!

TENSION

Make sure you comb your hair through before-hand. Keeping your hair pulled tight makes a big difference. Pull hair and iron downward. Use a fine-tooth comb and follow it with the iron.

Why would you iron tangled messy hair!?!?

TEMP

Your Iron should have a temperate gauge! Yes! Your iron can get to the heat of 220C but that was intended for in salon use for Keratin treatments NOT HOME USE! 180C is your safe zone for fine, normal or colour treated hair. Coarse hair does require more heat. At the correct temperature your hair should only need to run through the iron one time!

ADVANCED TECHNOLOGY

Is your straightening iron ancient? You follow all of the above steps and still have terrible results if you iron is old!! Look for new technology.

We asked Georgia Foley, national sales manager of H2D, a sunshine coast company what some of the major benefits are of their newest model. She says, "The Linear II "One Pass" professional hair straighteners will Straighten your hair to perfection! Loaded with new features such as adjustable temperature control, Infra red technology and ceramic plates coated in the semi precious stone "tourmaline" your hair will be left feeling and looking healthy, shiny and static free!"

1. Extinguish by De Lorenzo. 2. Protect Me by Sexy Hair. 3. Clips. 4. Fine-tooth Comb. 5. Smooth and Seal by Sexy Hair. 6. Linear II "One Pass" Professional Hair Straightener by H2D. **All featured products available at Becky B!***

CLOSE-KNIT CHRISTMAS TREE PROJECT

Have a yarn and warm some hearts as Redcliffe Museum and Bribie Island Seaside Museum invite residents to participate in the first Close-Knit Christmas Tree project.

Councillor for Division 6 Koliana Winchester said the venture, which was initially stitched up by Redcliffe Museum and Redcliffe Cultural Centre volunteer Letha Thomas, brings passionate knitters and novices together in the festive spirit.

"If you love to knit or crochet or want to learn, then this is a dream opportunity to have some fun with like-minded people and hone your skills before Christmas," she said.

"To have your handmade Christmas ornaments hung on the community Christmas tree will be a fantastic way to celebrate your talent and put a smile on so many faces."

Councillor for Division 1 Brooke Savage encouraged Bribie Island residents to get in touch with their creative side and head along to Bribie Island Seaside Museum to take part in the unique experience.

"Why not get creative this Christmas and make your own decorations from angels to snowmen and snowflakes.

"Knitting or crocheting is a great way for the community to come together in a relaxing environment to socialise and create art all towards this fantastic goal."

The Redcliffe Tree will be located inside the Redcliffe Museum and the Bribie Island Tree will be also located inside the Bribie Island Seaside Museum throughout December.

To participate, contact Redcliffe Museum (3883-1898) to register your interest and learn more - then you can start knitting! If you live in Bribie and would like to be involved contact (3408 0007) for more information.

Name game – How do I change my surname after marriage?

Kiara Greenway, Paralegal/Graduate Solicitor and Andrew McCormack, Senior Associate & Accredited Family Law Specialist at Best Wilson Buckley Family Law

In the lead up to marriage, there is often a lot to think about. How many guests will attend the wedding? What colour will the bridesmaids' dresses be? Is the venue booking confirmed? And, most importantly, what flavour(s) will the 5 tier wedding cake be (chocolate is always a winner!)?

It's no surprise that formalities, such as changing your surname, fall by the way-side until much later after the wedding.

However, changing your surname isn't as complex as it may seem from the outset. In fact, if you were married in Australia, there is no formal application form that needs to be completed. You're unlikely to find any set rules or regulations about changing your name after marriage. That's because there is a common law right for a wife to assume her husband's name after they are married. Your marriage certificate alone is sufficient to enable you to change your name. It goes back to the antiquated notion that after marriage, a wife became the property of her husband!

The first step is to formally notify the government agency that issues driver licences in your state. Once your driver licence has been changed, you can then use this as proof of your new identity.

Agencies like banks, utility companies (eg, electricity and water suppliers) and any other organisations/companies you hold accounts with or deal with will then accept the new driver licence and your marriage certificate as sufficient proof to change the name on your accounts. This can be done by writing a letter or email, completing a name change request provided by the company, or simply attending the office itself.

Different bodies will then have varying requirements as to what evidence they need to verify the change.

For example, you may need to:

- provide your original marriage certificate;
- provide a certified copy of your marriage certificate;
- send evidence of an updated photo ID, such as a drivers' licence; or
- send a combination of identity documents, such as your Medicare card or Health Care card.

If you have a passport that has issued in your previous family name, the Australian Passports Office will issue a new passport in your married name free of charge.

Should an organisation refuse to accept the above documents as proof of name change, a Change of Name Over 18 Years application form is available from the Queensland Government Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages.

The largest specialist family law team in Queensland is now a local in North Lakes.

REMAINING CONSCIOUSLY SINGLE

Hi Leonie,

I am a guy who is currently being bullied and harassed but not from the usual suspects.

I am being bullied by my parents and the women whom I causally date. I make no secret of the fact that I want to live my life as a single person and everyone seems to think that I am either going through a crisis or that I'm a selfish narcissist. Neither is true. I have just made a very educated and comfortable decision to not get married ever!

I also intend to never cohabit with anyone or share financial or emotional commitments. Yes, I know that this means that I will end up alone and this is the point. I want to be alone, manage my own life and not be beholden to anyone.

I also don't want children and I never have wanted children. I it seems to me that after more than three dates with any woman they want to know where it is all going, and I quite honestly say it going to be a parallel journey or nothing.

To be honest, I can't stand the idea of being with one woman for my whole life. I get bored with people easily. I have a big circle of friends and this is enough to meet my companionship needs. So sorry mum and dad you are not getting grandkids from me.

I plan to travel and enjoy my life and hang on to my wealth. What's wrong with that? I can't be the only person to make this choice. So, call me selfish or call me self-aware but how do I get people off my back?

Peter/Redcliffe

Hi Peter,

To answer your first question, there is nothing wrong with choosing to stay single and this has become the choice of lifestyle for many people. It is not always a choice made on the back of a destructive relationship or the loss of assets to divorce. Sometimes it a conscious decision to live life on your own terms without having to consider someone else's needs.

The positives are clear: you can spend your time and money as you wish. You don't have to practice monogamy and you can travel the world, you can have peace and quiet in your own home and can keep your home only as you like it and eat what you want.

Many people who have been financially ruined by a failed relationship feel the same way you do and I fully understand your motivation to lead a life independently of all that can go wrong. I don't think that you are narcissist or selfish but rather that you are not prepared to compromise on your choice of lifestyle. However, there are down sides to staying a lone wolf and I am sure you have considered these which include.

Not having a significant other to offer companionship and emotional and practical support in the down times and someone who will truly celebrate with you in the good times. Life being what it is often means that you are more than likely going to meet a person whom you fall hopelessly in love with as you travel through life and this is going to have an impact on your plans of a solo life.

I would ask that you reflect on your choices in a serious way just in case there is something that happened in your formative years that has led you to this decision such as parents constantly fighting, cheating or other influences. Do also consider that the choices you are making for now do not have to be set in stone and you are at liberty to change your mind in a year, a decade or in your elder years. I believe that if you are being honest with the women you are dating about your plans to remain single you are not hurting anyone except for perhaps that woman who foolishly believes she can change a man.

As for your parents, I would pick a time to have a serious talk with them about how let down you feel with their constant harassment. Remind them that you are an adult and that you will not be swayed by their attempts to use guilt or societal pressure and that they are ruining family time by not accepting your life choice. Perhaps also mention that grandchildren were never a part of the deal when they decided to have children and if they thought this was the case or if they think you owe them something, they are well out of order.

Sometimes, hard conversations just must be had. This is something that is ongoing, and you are right to label their harassment of you as bullying. If after you have seriously explained your feelings they continue to bring up the subject, you might consider grabbing your keys and leaving. This will let them know that if they want your company they will have to stop harassing you about this.

Til next week, Leonie

MAKING TIME THIS OCTOBER

Local women encouraged to take to take advantage of free screening during Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Locations and details.

BreastScreen Queensland have been providing Queensland women with quality breast cancer screening and assessment services for over 25 years. All appointments made are one-on-one with a female health professional and take about 30 minutes. The free breast screen is read independently by two specially trained doctors and no doctor's referral is necessary.

BreastScreen Queensland Brisbane Northside Service Medical Director Dr Jane Brazier said one in eight women would be affected by breast cancer by the age of 85.

"The good news is that finding breast cancer at an early stage increases the chances of successful treatment and wellbeing," Dr Brazier said.

"A breast screen is the best way of finding breast cancers early, even before they can be felt or other signs are noticed."

Dr Brazier said all BreastScreen Queensland radiographers were women and a doctor's referral was not needed for this free service.

"It is important for women to make time for their own health. A breast screen only takes 30 minutes every two years," she said.

She also reminded women to be breast aware

All appointments made are one-on-one with a female health professional and take about 30 minutes.

and to see a doctor as soon as possible if they noticed any breast changes.

"Being breast aware means getting to know the normal look and feel of your breasts. You don't need to be an expert or use a special technique to check your breasts," Dr Brazier said.

"Changes to look out for include any change of the shape, feel, size or colour of the breast, a lump, thickening, rash, any nipple changes or discharge, dimpling or puckering of the skin, unusual breast pain or any other breast changes that concern you."

BreastScreen Queensland encourages women aged 50 to 74 years to have regular two-yearly breast screens. Women in their forties, and 75 years and over are also eligible to attend.

The North Lakes service can be found at North Lakes Health Precinct, 9 Endeavour Boulevard, with other northside locations at Chermside, Brisbane City, Kippa-Ring, North Lakes and Indooroopilly.

Appointments can be booked online at www.breastscreen.qld.gov.au or by phoning 13 20 50.

PROFESSIONAL BMX TRACK FOR ALL AGES OPENS TO PUBLIC

One of the country's largest BMX tracks, the largest of its kind in Australia, opens at Bracken Ridge

Last week, a new $2.3 million BMX track opened at Bracken Ridge - the first of two dedicated off-road freestyle and racing facilities to accommodate BMX enthusiasts. Designed by a specialist team, including some of the experts behind the London Olympics BMX competition tracks, the track appeals to riders of all ages and abilities.

The 5,700 square metre facility features 640 metres of asphalt track with freestyle jumps and obstacles of heights varying from 40cm to 160cm accommodating beginner, intermediate and advanced level runs to cater to junior and experienced riders.

The new free BMX track adjoins the Aquatic Centre and Bracken Ridge Skate Plaza Telegraph on Road and has lighting so bike, scooter or skateboard fans can ride until 10pm.

"We want Brisbane riders ranging from beginners through to professional riders, to have a high-quality track to learn to ride on, practice new tricks, improve skills or prepare for a BMX race," Lord Mayor Graham Quirk said prior to the opening.

"There are currently no large, dedicated BMX facilities across Brisbane, and many talented young riders do not have the facilities to hone their skills to a competitive or professional level."

"This purpose-built track, together with one opening at Darra in mid-2019, will be available for up and coming BMX riders to do workshops and practice their techniques."

Bracken Ridge Ward Councillor Amanda Cooper said that the BMX track would add to the destination recreation precinct already located at the corner of Telegraph Road and Lemke Road.

"The Bracken Ridge BMX is an exciting new free venue for the whole family and adds to the Emily Seeborn Aquatic Centre and Bracken Ridge Skate Plaza which opened in 2016," she said.

"In addition to the riding facilities, the precinct is benefitting from 30 additional car parking spaces and lighting at the track and skate plaza until 10pm.

"A special artwork designed two local artists Cezary Stulgis and Benjamin Reeve, has also been installed at the facility, as part of the Brisbane Canvas initiative."

For more information about the Bracken Ridge BMX track, visit www.brisbane.qld.gov.au or call Council on (07) 3403 8888.

AQUARIUS. (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19): The problem is in trying to go back the way you came. You need to get people to embrace the future, not avoid it.

PISCES. (Feb. 20 - March 20): Not all decisions are based on where you're going. Sometimes they depend on where you've been. You should know if something begun last March is working or not.

ARIES. (March 21- April 20): Just because things don't work out now doesn't mean they won't eventually. What you truly want is closer than you think.

TAURUS. (April 21 - May 21): You will soon meet someone who will have a profound impact on your life. The important thing to remember is that he's a catalyst for change.

GEMINI. (May 22 - June 21): You're damned if you do and damned if you don't, so do what you please. If there's Hell to pay, then the experience might as well be worth it.

CANCER. (June 22 - July 23): Make your New Year's resolution a few months early because this is the time to commit a new life direction. The Moon in Aries ensures you'll go the distance.

LEO. (July 24 - Aug. 23): A new friend enters your life. It will be nice to get a fresh perspective from someone who hasn't heard it all before.

THE MUSICAL
Script and Music by Mark Bourgeois & Craig Chambers

When a shy vegetarian vampire princess called Lucy meets an adventurous, outspiring human girl called Jane, she sees a chance to realise her dreams of escaping her vampire world and her 'monstrous' controlling parents. Meeting at the dental clinic recently opened by Jane's square and well-meaning parents, the two girls make plans to escape Creepytown forever. But when her evil Stepfather and his Hunchback discover their plan, Jane and Lucy must act quickly to thwart the uncompromising villains and ensure their escape. Will the girls find their route to freedom and adventure or will events ultimately unravel their plans? With a chorus of vampires, werewolves, zombies and witches, Creepytown is a fun and action-packed show which is sure to bring the house down.

Prices fell across the country, except Brisbane which also saw the largest median rent decrease

Property prices across Australian capital cities fell in the June quarter 2018 with the weighted average median prices decreasing by 0.8 per cent for houses and 0.3 per cent for other dwellings, according to the Real Estate Institute of Australia.

The Real Estate Market Facts report shows the weighted average median price for houses for the eight capital cities slid to $765,098 over the quarter, with prices dropping in all capital cities except for Brisbane, Adelaide and Hobart.

REIA President Malcolm Gunning said the weighted average median price for other dwellings decreased to $590,935 over the quarter, with prices falling in all capital cities except for Melbourne, Brisbane, Hobart and Darwin.

"Canberra had the largest fall in house prices and Adelaide had the largest decline in other dwellings. Adelaide has both the lowest median price for houses at $471,000 and the lowest median price for other dwellings at $354,167," Mr Gunning said.

"Over the quarter, the median rent for three-bedroom houses increased in Canberra and Darwin, remained steady in Perth and, decreased in Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Adelaide and Hobart. The median rent for two-bedroom other dwellings increased in Canberra and Hobart, remained steady in Perth and decreased in

HOUSING PRICES CONTINUE TO FALL

Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Adelaide and Darwin. Hobart had the largest increase while Brisbane had the largest decrease."

Mr Gunning said the weighted average vacancy rate for the eight capital cities fell to 2.5 per cent during the June quarter indicating a tighter rental market. Canberra has the tightest market with a vacancy rate of 0.8 per cent.

Over the past 12 months, loan numbers have decreased by 3.8 per cent across the country with declines in all states and territories except Tasmania. The largest decrease of 13.6 per cent was in Western Australia. In Sydney and Melbourne – the two cities which have had the largest price increases over the past few years – the drop in loans is attributable to APRA restrictions on investment loans and more stringent home lending criteria.

"The June quarter figures reflect reports of a changing dynamic in the market, particularly in the nation's major cities," Mr Gunning said.

A word from our Seller...

On meeting Darren for the first time, my wife and I knew that our property was in the right hands. His attitude, professional approach and explanation of the market, what to expect in our situation and how the market was sitting at the moment and what to expect over the next few weeks and months with the way he was going to approach the sale of my property. He was continually on the phone to me, if not every day at least once a week to keep me updated on procedures, which was not only comforting but made you realize that this man knew what the relation between the seller and himself meant. I would highly recommend to any other buyer or seller.
