NO ONE LEFT BEHIND THIS YEAR

Staycations within driving distance

Pic: Leah Desborough

Not all of us get to go on grand overseas holidays to more Christmassy climes, gitz global cities or exotic beach locales. Perhaps this year though, those of us left behind can make all our travelling friends jealous with local picture perfect offerings, both new and old.

The great South East, Brisbane in particular, is booming. Throughout 2018 there were more new openings offering locals a quick and glamorous staycation than you can wave a flute of Bollinger at. It seemed each month saw a sparkling new gem embellishing the skyline with their own unique character. Here's our roundup of drivable getaways proving you don't need a three week block and an airfare to have a memorable break.

THE VALLEY BRISBANE

Ovolo is continuing its Brisbane expansion with the transformation of the former Emporium Hotel Fortitude Valley. The 'ovolution', which started with the rebranding of the property as The Valley Brisbane, transformed rooms and public spaces before evolving into the just opened Ovolo The Valley. The hotel boasts new food and drink concepts and the celebrated 'freebies' (free mini bar, breakfast, wifi, happy hour and all-day snacks). www.thevalleybrisbane.com.au

W BRISBANE

W Brisbane was the first 5-star hotel to open locally, making Brisbane the only Australian city with a W Hotel. Located at 300 George Street, on the site of the old law courts and offering views from South Bank to Mount Coot-tha, the W Brisbane boasts three bars and restaurants in addition to 312 guestrooms. The design of the hotel pays tribute to local Indigenous culture and the river that defines Brisbane, with the motif snaking throughout. Equipped with the iconic 'Whatever, Whenever' W service (meaning guests can pick up the phone and ask for anything that is legal) the hotel is raising the bar on Brisbane's accommodation offerings. www.starwoodhotels.com/whotels/

NOVOTEL SOUTH BANK

While the new Novotel South Bank tailors to the corporate set and savvy culture vultures amongst us, the location is indisputable as one of Brisbane's finest. A walkway links the hotel with the Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre, so you can go from conference to cocktails in the lobby lounge, wine and dine clients in the on-site restaurant or just check-in and unwind in the outdoor pool and gym. The hotel offers fairtrade bathroom amenities, free barista coffee at breakfast and Novotel's Live N' Dream bedding. www.novotelbrisbanesouthbank.com.au

SANCTUARY BY SIRROMET

Glamping and wine more your speed? Look no further than Queensland's first winery glamping experience 30 minutes-drive south of Brisbane at Sirromet Wines Estate. Currently, Sanctuary by Sirrome offers luxe safari-style tents on the 20-acre property amongst natural flora and wildlife with fully-furnished amenities, including a floating deck. Daily rates include a local produce breakfast hamper. www.sactuarybysirromet.com

THE SEBEL BRISBANE MARGATE BEACH

Seaside opulence lies a stone's throw from the shores of Margate Beach at The Sebel Brisbane Margate Beach, the latest boutique hotel in Moreton Bay. The ninth property to operate under the Sebel brand in Queensland, the $15 million-dollar hotel which opened 29th May features 58 rooms boasting a chic façade - neutral tones, minimal furnishings and panoramic ocean views. The minimal décor is made up of stellar onsite facilities like a rooftop function space, pool and conference facilities. www.thesebelbrisbanemargatebeach.com

EMPORIUM 2, SOUTH BANK

Hip design, the latest in-room technology and personalised service are the starring elements of the Emporium Hotels Group's new five-star Emporium Hotel South Bank in Brisbane. The hotel features 143 luxuriously appointed suites, some with free standing marble baths bragging floor to ceiling full frontal city views, while a Sky Bar offers magnificent views over South Bank Parklands, the Brisbane River, city and beyond. www.emporiumhotels.com.au/emporium-hotel-south-bank.html

THE CALILE HOTEL, FORTITUDE VALLEY

Beverly Hills luxe meets James Street cool, The Calile Hotel is a retro styled seven-storey urban resort home to 175 rooms, a mix of boutiques, cafes and restaurants, like Gold Coast Greek favourite, Hellenika, on the pool terrace. The hotel's leafy, urban streetscape façade pays homage to Brisbane's subtropical climate, with an adjoining micro-precinct, Ada Lane, offering five new eateries and bars. www.thecalile.com

THE WESTIN BRISBANE

Another five-star jewel in the dazzling crown that is Brisbane accommodation is The Westin. It has 286 rooms (38 suites), a swim up pool bar known as the Nautilus and a dedicated restaurant precinct serving regional and international cuisine. Keen to get active but forgot to bring your gear? No worries! The Westin have partnered with New Balance through their WestinWORKOUT program to lend you some brand new activewear during your stay. www.starwoodhotels.com/westin/

RYDGES SOUTH BANK (PICTURED)

Rydges South Bank boasts probably the most enviable stay and play location in Brisbane. Its neighbours include GoMA, the Cultural Centre, State Library and Queensland Performing Arts Complex and it's a breath away from the Brisbane River and its wonderful walks; immersed in the heart of South Bank and its family of restaurants, bars, markets and open spaces, and just a bridge away from the city centre and central business district.

Rydges South Bank stands as a bucket-list inclusion for visitors and locals alike having completed a $30 million all-room upgrade, and the hotel just dropped four stay, play and adventure packages for Brisbane.

Pick of the bunch is the Family Stays package, offering rooms are genuinely big enough for the whole family from $239 per night (Members from $215 per night) with complimentary breakfast for children under 12 years in Bacchus restaurant, valet parking for one, children's movie tray for up to two children (12 years and under on arrival). GATEWAY UPGRADE

FIRST SECTION OF WIDENED GATEWAY MOTORWAY OPENS

Commuters can rejoice as three new lanes on the newly widened Gateway Motorway between Nudgee and Deagon are now open to traffic.

Part of the $1.1 billion Gateway Upgrade North project, the lanes stretch between Southern Cross Way and Depot Road, Deagon (northbound) and southbound between the Sandgate Road bridges and Nudgee.

The upgraded section provides a critical transport corridor for more than 83,000 vehicles each day.

Queensland Minister for Transport and Main Roads Mark Bailey said motorists would begin to see the benefits of the project as peak hour traffic on the motorway though Nudgee became less congested."

The newly opened stretch has a temporary 80Kph speed limit while final works are completed, after which speed limit will be raised.

Federal Member for Petrie Luke Howarth said the project would also improve road safety for pedestrians and cyclists.

"Works are also progressing to complete the construction of an off-road shared pedestrian and cycle path between Nudgee to Bracken Ridge, which is expected to be opened in stages," Mr Howarth said.

The $1.1 billion Gateway Upgrade North project is jointly funded by the Australian Government and Queensland Governments, with the Australian Government providing 80 per cent of the costs with the remaining costs provided by the Queensland Government.

NORTHS SALVATION ARMY CHRISTMAS APPEAL

Christmas can be a time of joy, a time to celebrate love for one another, and a time of sharing gifts. Christmas is a happy time for most but spare a thought for those families who won't have the happiness and joy of opening presents this year. For some, it can be a time of loneliness and sadness.

The Norths Salvation Army Christmas appeal has been running for over ten years and during that time hundreds of toys have been donated to disadvantaged children. This year the club encourages members of community to continue the generous tradition of giving to this worthwhile cause.

Norths is now inviting the community to place new toys under the Christmas tree located at the entrance of the club. The toys will be collected by the Pine Rivers Salvation Army and distributed to disadvantaged children in the community.

In the spirit of the season, Norths is bringing the community together to support those in need. Your donations are enormously appreciated.

For more information regarding the Christmas appeal, please call Norths on (07) 3285 2733, or email Norths at enquiries@northsleagues.com.

report their fuel prices, enabling locals to find the cheapest petrol.

"Fuel reporting apps and websites have been around for a while now, but they do not always include up to date information," Chris Whiting MP said.

"If everyone shops around the more expensive retailers will soon get the message."

Fuel retailers now have to report fuel prices within 30 minutes of them changing at the bowser or face fines of up to $13,000 for not complying.

"The ACCC has found that petrol prices across Brisbane can vary by as much as .15c a litre. This is something we see locally with petrol stations on Anzac Ave in North Lakes and Mango Hill often having big price differences," said Chris Whiting.

There are 1,446 petrol stations across Queensland and as of Friday 30 November 92% (1,328) have signed up to the trial.

Retailers will have three months grace to get their processes right, with fines to be handed out by Easter next year if they don't update fuel prices accurately and on time.

IN PICTURES: SCARBOROUGH CHRISTMAS CAROLS 2018

Last Sunday, residents from near and not so near descended on Scarborough Beach Park for the annual festive celebration that is the Scarborough Christmas Carols.

The kids fell in love with Santa's Village with its life-sized snow globe, jumping castle and nativity scene and were treated with a visit from Santa.

Throughout the afternoon and into the evening festive revellers sang along to carolling performances from local community and dance groups and enjoyed roving Christmas performers, twilight markets, and free Christmas activities and workshops.

The evening finished with a huge fireworks spectacular.

I CAN'T STOP SHOPPING FOR THINGS I DON'T NEED

Hi Leonie,

I am a 47-year-old family woman with a husband, children and a mortgage with an out of control spending problem.

I have been to financial counsellor and all he wanted to do is re-mortgage the house and sell me other lending and insurance products. I get determined to clean up my act and not watch shopping network shows and only go to Coles at Mango Hill so that I don't enter Westfield and walk past all the sales, but it never lasts.

I feel like I'm living a double life, cutting off tags and hiding purchases from my husband. My credit card is not maxed out but always has a few hundred on it that I try to pay off on the sly.

We are not poor, and we are managing all our bills and it's not like I am gambling away the family farm or anything, but I know that it's such a waste of money. I never used to be like this and logically I know I don't need any more clothes, shoes or stuff for the house, but I will still shop especially when I get alerts that there are big sales to get stuff for less than half price.

I will be honest and say that I won't go to therapy but at the same time I love your column and really admire the help that you give. So, this time I am asking for some help. Please respond to this email and please don't print my name. Thanks so much for reading my email

Shopaholic/North Lakes

Hi,

I am sad to hear that you won't engage in therapy because there is so much help that can be had when you truly look at all the individual factors that are driving your out of control spending. I am happy to offer some insight and some strategies but again this is no where near as effective as a treatment plan individually tailored to your specific situation.

Firstly, I would have you look at your emotional drivers. You say that you haven't always had this issue. So, look back in time to where you noticed your problem started and look at what was happening in your life at that time. This includes major events such as the death of a parent or other loved one, a change in your marital situation including an affair or an argument or action you just can't forget or forgive, the loss of a role or job where you found validation and so on. Sometimes we may use unconscious addictive behavior such as shopping, gambling and over eating to fill an emotional hole in ourselves so this is well worth exploring.

Then try to step out of yourself and adopt the posture of a witness and pay really close attention to what happens before, during and after you weaken and spend needlessly. Look for triggers. For example, are you lonely, bored, hurt or does it happen when you are arguing with someone? Look for patterns in your behavior because the more you understand the pattern the more you can change it. As in all matters, knowledge is power.

Next, I suggest that you follow some of the staple changes a dieter makes when trying to lose weight. Let me explain. In dieting we all know that environment is important, and we don't keep treats or sugar laden foods in the house because it too tempting. The same can be said for over shopping. You need to clean up your environment.

First, I suggest you hop on the computer and un-subscribe from all stores including clothing and online stores, so you don't get emails encouraging you to shop. Then get to your phone, find the last sales SMS alert for all your memberships and send STOP back to each of them. Marketing relies on this kind of click and bait type of message, they are effectively throwing out a line with bait on it hoping you will bite so block them at every turn.

You have made a choice by avoiding major shopping centres but also consider having your groceries delivered until you are feeling more in control.

Turn your phone off when you go to bed, so you are not tempted to troll sites when you can't sleep. Try to tape your favourite shows so that you can fast forward though the ads especially at this time of year.

I know that when trying to stop a behavior of any kind it works best if you replace it with another behavior, so I suggest you find something positive that you love and use this as your emotional outlet.

I had one lady in a similar position get super excited about making her home the best it can be by culling, organising and donating so you might decide to give this a try. I would encourage you to stop labelling yourself as a shopaholic, I am sure you are many great things and this term just feeds a poor self-esteem. You have a problem at the moment, but the problem is not who you are.

Till next week, Leonie

Greetings from "THE HAPPIEST LIONS CLUB in AUSTRALIA", for the last column of the year, as we get ready for the festive season.

The regular readers of the articles I write throughout the year will realise, how busy we have been, within the club during 2018, rendering services to our community. Last month I listed our most recent projects and their outcomes, with a couple of notable exceptions which I'll cover this time.

JUNIOR PUBLIC SPEAKING COMPETITION

This event was held at The Lakes College in mid-October, where four of our local schools (The Lakes College, North Lakes State College, Mango Hill State School and Bounty Boulevard State School) competed at the podium with two contestants from each, in two divisions, from years five and six. The winners in year five were:

1st Zara Biesse - Bounty Boulevard State School

2nd Bella Swensson - Bounty Boulevard State School

3rd Alexia McElligott - Mango Hill State School

The winners in year six were:

1st Taruni Mithulananthan - Mango Hill State School

2nd Lois Van Beusekom - The Lakes College

3rd Tiana Doyle - Mango Hill State School

Hopefully next year we will be able to include a fifth local school into the competition. Our club wishes to thank publicly Ms Sharon Lollback from the Lakes College, for coordinating this event and the other teachers from all the schools involved who contributed to the success of the competition.

YOUTH OF THE YEAR COMPETITION

This event was held at The Lakes College in early November and was open to students aged between 15 and 19 years. The competition involves the completion of a detailed entry form, interviews with the three independent community judges during the afternoon, and public speaking that evening. The public speaking includes 2 two-minute impromptu speeches and a prepared five-minute speech. This is the first time the Lions Club of North Lakes has conducted this competition for many years.

There were three participants, all from The Lakes College: Cooper Gibbs, Kayleigh Williams and Patrick Grant. It was reported that the competition was of an extremely high level and quality and most enjoyable.

The Public Speaking winner was Patrick Grant and he also won the Overall. Patrick will now progress to the Zone Final to be held in Redcliffe in February next year. If successful, he will then move through the Region, District, State and National levels of the competition. The National Final will be held in May at the Lions Australia National Convention in Geelong. Our club would like to thank Mr Scott Francis from The Lakes College for coordination this event and it is hoped to expand the North Lakes competition to include other local schools next year.

CHRISTMAS CAKES AND PUDDINGS

Yes, it is that time of the year again where our Lions Club members will be manning a table, selling our Christmas Cakes and Puddings, in the entry of Bunning's North Lakes store through the week from Monday the 10th of December. As with the Public Speaking competitions in our area, these products are also of an extremely high quality. We are working towards it becoming the norm, that a Lions Christmas Cake and Pudding are a "MUST HAVE FIRST" on every North Lakes family Christmas dinner table, before you think of hams etc.

BUNNING'S BBQ

We will be also be conducting the BBQ at North Lakes Bunning's store, on Saturday the 22nd of December, so please come along and have our members look after you with a SAUSAGE SIZZLE and a DRINK.

We would like to thank and acknowledge the great support given to our club by the Bunning's North Lakes Activities Organizer Narelle Short.

SPECIAL THANKS

As in all "Not For Profit Organisations" such as our North Lakes Lions Club, we rely on some very special people in the community, who often are forgotten by most people and just carry on doing their thing and getting very little or in fact no recognition for what they do.

Dan Fidler and his team at The North Lakes Messenger is one of our local unsung heroes. I'd like to firstly recognise him and his team for the exceptional job they do in producing our own town's weekly magazine. For as long as our club has been in existence, Dan and Co have supported us in so many ways, thus allowing us to prosper into the force to be so proud of in this area, that we are so often told that we are. It is truly gratifying to be associated with such a dedicated and professional outfit as you are.

We applaud the great work you do and look forward to continuing our association with The North Lakes Messenger again in 2019.

BECOME A MEMBER

Please be aware you can become a member of the North Lakes Lions Club. Call our Membership Officer Lion Sean Hughes directly, on 0427 477 990. He'll answer any initial questions and invite you to our next Dinner meeting. Come and join our club and experience first-hand how your individual skills can be utilized. If you're new to the area, you can integrate, make new friends in our community, while helping others.

THE LAST WORD

From all the members of The North Lakes Lions Club, I'd like to extend the best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy and safe New Year and we'll be back at your service in early 2019.

Till next time, Lion Chris.

If you've booked a Christmas getaway don't forget your rights if accommodation houses a nasty surprise

Holiday-makers have protections under Australian Consumer Law if they arrived at their accommodation and it was not as advertised. You have the same rights when using sharing economy platforms such as Airbnb or Stayz as any other good or service.

The sharing economy connects you to individual traders who have products or services to sell, hire or lease via an online platform or mobile app. Uber, Airbnb and Airtasker are examples of the many organisations operating sharing economy platforms.

Platform operators generally only perform administrative tasks, such as facilitating payment and managing the operation of the website or app.

While the sharing economy can benefit consumers by providing a greater choice and sometimes lower prices, it also offers individual traders new ways to generate income but accommodation (and other services) booked through these services hold the consumer guarantees under the ACL as any other type of accommodation. You should expect accepted quality and safety that matches the description given during the booking process or in advertising.

If you are not satisfied that the accommodation you have paid for matches the description you were given, speak to the accommodation provider directly, or contact the online platform through their internal dispute resolution process.

If you can't resolve the matter with the platform and/or trader, lodge a complaint with the Office of Fair Trading

You should always be aware of the terms and conditions you agreed to when you booked, but these terms are not allowed to be unfair and they do not override your consumer rights.

Consumers who want to read up on their rights before they headed off on holiday can visit www.qld.gov.au/fairtrading.

Fishing and summer are a perfect match. Taking your children out fishing over the summer holidays can create lifelong memories, but before you go this holiday season, don't forget to check the rules before you drop a line so those memories are good ones. Different rules apply for fishing in tidal and fresh waters, marine parks and interstate.

"It's important that everyone is aware of and follows the rules, which ensure sustainable fisheries for future generations of Queensland fishers," Agricultural Industry Development and Fisheries Mark Furner said.

"Everybody, regardless of whether they are experienced or first timers, should familiarise themselves with the relevant rules that apply, including size and possession limits, how to correctly measure fish, fishing gear restrictions and closed seasons.

Fishing tips and responsibilities:

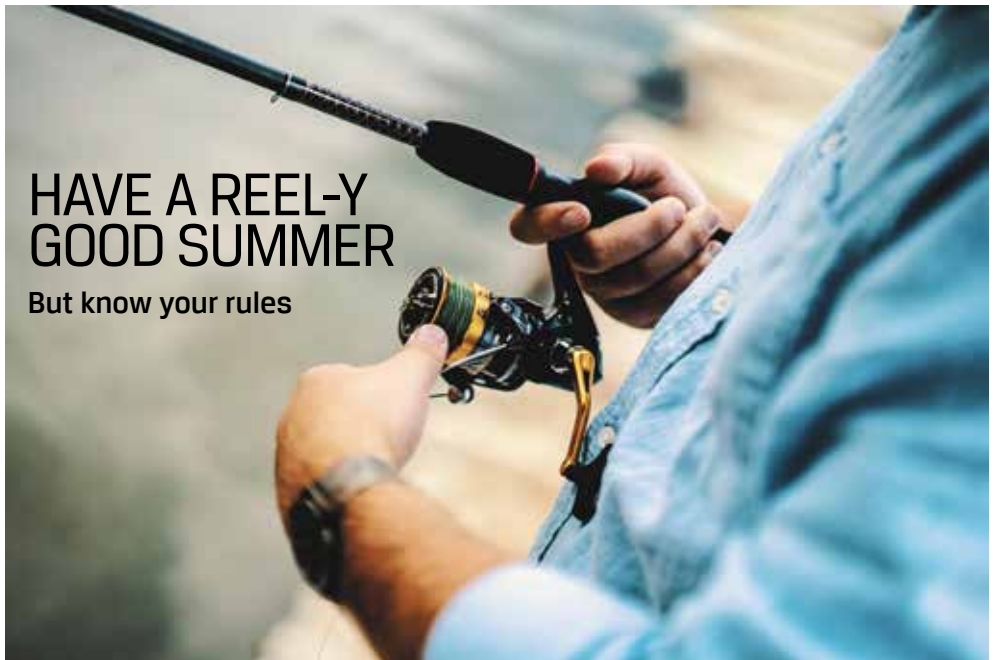

Check your limits - For a list of size and possession limits, visit www.fisheries.qld.gov.au or download the Qld Fishing app.

Measuring devices - Use a ruler with an end stop to measure the length of your fish or a crab gauge to measure your crabs.

Identify your catch - Always carry a fish identification guide or download the Qld Fishing app. Fish that look similar can actually be different species with different size and possession limits. If you can't ID it, free it.

Gently does it - When a fish is hooked, avoid playing it on the line for too long. A stressed fish will quickly become exhausted and have less chance of survival if required to be released.

Check your gear - A number of restrictions apply to fishing gear. Check the rules at www.fisheries.qld.gov.au.

If it's not yours, don't touch it - Interfering with crab apparatus you didn't set is illegal. If you see apparatus that may have been abandoned, report it to Fishwatch on 1800 017 116.

Anglers can and should purchase a Stocked Impoundment Permit (SIP) before fishing in any of Queensland's 63 stocked dams and weirs.

"Stocked impoundments are replenished regularly making them the perfect sustainable fishing option," he said.

"Species stocked include barramundi, golden perch, silver perch, Australian bass, Mary River cod, Murray River cod and saratoga."

The cost of an annual permit is $50 per person, $36 for concession card holders or $10 for a weekly permit. Permits are available at www.fisheries.qld.gov.au, by calling 1300 575 359, or at any Australia Post outlet in Queensland.

To report any suspected illegal fishing activity, call the Fishwatch hotline on 1800 017 116.

For more information on Queensland fishing rules including fish identification and SIPs, visit www.fisheries.qld.gov.au, call 13 25 23 or download the free 'Qld Fishing' app from Apple and Google app stores.

YOUR STARS

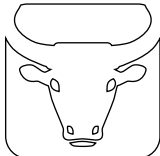

Aquarius- January 21 - February 19: You may disagree with what a friend or family member has to tell you but there is no point making a big fuss about it because they have clearly made up their mind. Maybe they're right, maybe you are being too cautious for your own good.

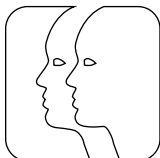

Pisces- February 20 - March 20: According to the planets you are expecting far too much of yourself and need to adjust your sights so you are aiming for goals you have some chance of reaching. You have nothing to prove Pisces, either to yourself or to other people.

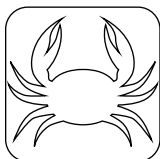

Aries- March 21 - April 20: to whatever it takes to avoid petty arguments today, because you will need all your energy to strive for an important goal that is now within reach. What you accomplish over the next few days will set the scene for the many months.

Taurus- April 21 - May 21: the planets make it pretty clear that you have bitten off more than you can chew, that your talents don't quite match up to the challenges you face. Don't get angry with yourself about it though - all experience is good experience.

Gemini- May 22 - June 21: You must stick to the facts today, even if the facts are nowhere near as exciting as you would like them to be. If you try to insert wishful thinking into what you are doing the results could be embarrassing for all concerned.

Cancer- June 22 - July 23: Try to avoid arguments today, both at home and at work, because they are unlikely to be resolved in your favor, if indeed they are resolved at all. You need to find ways to work with partners and colleagues, ways that benefit everyone.

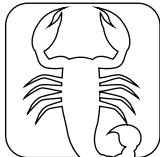

Leo- July 24 - August 23: With the Sun, your ruler, at odds with Neptune, planet of illusion, you may find it hard to distinguish between fact and fiction. Don't be surprised if something you thought was quite substantial turns out to have no substance at all.

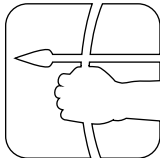

Virgo- August 24 - September 23: Listen to what partners and loved ones have to tell you today but think carefully before you act on what they say. In fact you are strongly advised to hold off making any kind of decision while Neptune is so strong in your chart.

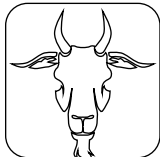

Libra- September 24 - October 23: You can't seem to make up your mind as to what you should believe and what you should be doing. But who says you have to make a decision about either one of them right now? Take your time. Tomorrow will be here soon enough.

Scorpio- October 24 - November 22: You may be eager to test your ideas but don't be so eager that you go off too early and make a silly mistake. Money matters, in particular, need to be handled with care over the next 24 hours. Don't put at risk what you cannot afford to lose.

Sagittarius- November 23 - December 21: You may have big plans, and they may be good plans, but the planets warn you must not rush things. The best time to launch a new project is when the moon is new on Friday. Until then, keep your head down and keep thinking.

Capricorn- December 22 - January 20: Chances are you will find it hard to think straight today, and doubts and fears that would not worry you in the slightest most of the time will suddenly seem of huge importance. They're not, so get a grip on yourself and get past them.

MOVE TOWARDS A BETTER FUTURE

with Leonie Schilling's

North Lakes Counselling Services

Leonie has turned our relationship around and we are going in a great direction with both of us much happier. Should have done it years ago

Professional, kind and compassionate. She helped clear my hazy perception and set positive goals towards moving forward in my life

Incredibly grateful to Leonie for her spot-on advice regarding my highly emotional, anxious child.

After being very sceptical of the process, this lady made me feel very at ease and was very gentle with my feelings of grief.

INSPECT LIGHTS OR RISK NIGHTMARE BEFORE CHRISTMAS

With the festive season well and truly upon us, Queenslanders have been warned to put safety first as new research revealed the serious fire risks posed by unchecked Christmas lights and decorations.

RACQ spokesperson Kirsty Clinton warned aged, faulty or incorrectly installed lights and electronic decorations posed a serious safety threat to families if basic safety checks were not performed each year.

"Our research shows almost 60 percent of Queenslanders plan to decorate their homes for the festive season, the majority using last year's decorations - but only about one third of those will closely inspect them before installation," Ms Clinton said.

"With home fires a serious risk, we're urging everyone to perform a few simple safety checks before installing lights, and to always follow proper safety instructions.

"Take a moment to inspect lights for any visible signs of damage to cords or plugs, as they can become frayed and broken after years of use, or while in storage during the year. Make sure lights have no signs of rust and are not excessively dusty.

"When setting up fairy lights and other electrical decorations, never overload power boards by piggy-back double adaptors - only one item per socket should be used.

"It's also essential all lights purchased have an Australian Standards label and are used for their correct purpose, for example, indoor lights should never be used outside."

Ms Clinton said the placement of Christmas lights should also be carefully considered.

"Lights generate significant heat and shouldn't be positioned next to paper or other flammable decorations," she said.

"We also recommend not leaving lights on unattended for long periods, particularly if nobody is home or overnight.

"With the weekend marking the start of December, we expect many families to spend the weekend making their homes festive. Some quick safety checks could ensure there are no nightmares in your home before Christmas."
